Dear Parent / Carer

Re: Year 11 Study Leave

This letter is to inform you that the official study leave date for Year 11 will be Monday 13th June.

On Monday the 13th June, Mrs King will be leading a final celebration assembly for the students, giving them time to look back and review their time at the Peele. After the assembly, we have organised for a leavers' BBQ to be held for the students.

Following this day, the students will only need to attend college for their exams and any lessons for subjects in which they are yet to sit exams. Students who travel to college by bus will be able to do so and can remain for the whole day, attending lessons and any intervention sessions that are running. However, once in college if students leave college premises they will not be allowed to return later to use the bus to travel home.

With parental agreement, students are able to leave college after their exams or lessons. Please fill in the slip below and return to Mrs King by Monday 6th June if this is something you would like to happen. If you have any questions or concerns regarding these arrangements, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Mrs King and we will be happy to help.

Yours sincerely

Mr D Showler
Assistant Headteacher

Please return to Mrs King
